President's Log

Spring has sprung and the dust and pollen have begun to settle! Along with the renewal of nature, the Paradise Dive Club has been making some changes too. We have a new, bigger, better meeting place, we have some interesting changes to our dissemination of information, and we are planning some new things for the club as well.

As some have seen, we have a new Facebook page. To find it...go to facebook.com and type into the search bar..."Paradise Dive Club." But what does this mean for you? Well, if you click the "Like" button you'll receive updates, and when you want to go diving, you'll now have a place where you can go to ask if anyone is available to meet you for a dive! You'll be able to find accurate information on when and where the next club event will be. And you'll find the latest newsletters. Chock-a-Block with witty, insightful articles written by your President and various club members.

Additionally, we will soon have new posters that our sponsors will be posting in their shops. The posters will feature photos of recent club events and have updated information about the club. With new posters and advertisements, hopefully we will begin to see some new faces at the meetings.

Diving is why we meet every month. And, hopefully, as we continue to promote the club, we will have new members to share our stories with. And soon, those stories will be about the new and different dive sites that we as a club have visited. So read the newsletter, make plans to join us on our upcoming events, and go to Facebook and start reading and posting!

Monterey Dive Trip

Last year this jaunt up the coast to visit some cold(er) water went so well that we've decided to do it again. We will arrive at Laguna Seca Campground on June 28th (Friday) and come back to SB on July 2nd (Tuesday). The diving will be along Cannery Row, the Coast Guard Wall, Point Lobos and perhaps Monastery Beach. We also intend to spend a day at the Aquarium. You don't have to come for all the nights. Pick and choose as you see fit. More details will follow.

Wreck Alley

Let's go to San Diego and dive Wreck Alley!! The boat is probably going to be Lois Ann. 3 tanks dive is $95. They usually dive The Yukon, The Ruby E, and then dive the vibrant kelp forests. I'm trying to find a campground close to the boat. Failing that, there's plenty of hotels. Stay tuned for follow up info.
